Story on Page Three

AIMS TO CONQUER! Gertrude Ederle, greatest of all woman long-distance swimmers, set her nose toward England today in her second attempt to swim the English Channel. She was confident of doing it. (Photo Graphic.)

CHAPMAN'S GHOST, if such there be, has taken form in Harry Sullivan (right) who police took from the U. S. S. Roosevelt yesterday and charged him with mail-robbing. Federal Agent Cunningham is with him. (Photo Graphic.)

VINDICATES MRS. HALL.

Mrs. Nellie Lou Russell (above), shown kissing her husband good-by, and expecting arrest momentarily because of what she may know, swears that Mrs. Hall is innocent of murders. (P. & A.)
